

What kind of community classes and lectures are offered?

- Geology
- Gardening
- Drought Tolerant Landscaping
- Native Plants
- Alternative Energy
- Composting
- Texas Native Animals
- Citizen Scientists
- Urban Wildlife
- Family Nature Activities
- Summer Camps

These classes and lectures are sponsored by Keep Coppel Beautiful, Friends of Coppel Nature Park, and the City of Coppel.

Who We Are

The Biodiversity Education Center offers public lectures and classes on various environmental topics. It is a classroom space for groups who visit the Coppel Nature Park. It also provides free field trips to Coppel ISD schools and meeting space for Coppel-based non-profit organizations.

Biodiversity Stakeholders

- Friends of Coppel Nature Park
- Keep Coppel Beautiful
- Coppel ISD
- Northlake College
- City of Coppel

Contact Us

Phone: 972-304-3581

Email: cnp@coppelltx.gov

Web: www.coppelltx.gov/BEC

Friends of Coppel Nature Park

Web: www.coppellnaturepark.org

BIODIVERSITY EDUCATION CENTER

At Coppel Nature Park in Wagon Wheel Park

Coppel, Texas

BIODIVERSITY EDUCATION CENTER

367 Freeport Parkway
Coppel TX 75019

What is available for use for Coppell based non-profit meetings?

- 120 chairs
- Education Hall approx. 48ft x 30ft
- 2 Large Screen TV's for presentation projection in Education Hall
- Microphone system
- Apple TV
- 8-four foot tables
- Conference Room with seating for 12 at a table and a projector
- Kitchen with fridge and microwave
- Attached Deck

What is available for Coppell ISD school field trips?

- Guided Hikes of the Coppell Nature Park Trails
- Geology of Coppell Nature Park
- Plant Presentations: tree identification, plant characteristics, tree sicknesses
- Mammal Presentations: mammal characteristics, mammal diet teeth adaptations, mammal skulls
- Self-guided nature hunts
- Insects
- Birds (adaptations and backyard feeding)
- Biodiversity Center's rain water collection design and solar panel power generation
- Animal Architecture
- Water Cycle
- Nature Themed Games
- Clever Catches for fact reviews on reptiles, rocks, minerals, birds, insects, and alternative energy
- Stereo and Compound microscopes
- Aquatic sampling equipment
- Fossil, Rock, and Mineral Displays

What volunteer opportunities are available?

- Trail mulching and maintenance through the Friends of Coppell Nature Park. For more information visit: coppellnaturepark.org
- Assisting with visiting school groups
- Assisting with classes and lectures
- Friends of Coppell Nature Park board membership

